INSTRUCTION TO AUTHORS

Manuscript preparation

Authors should aim to communicate ideas and information clearly and concisely, in language suitable for the moderate specialist. Experimental paper should contain sufficient detail and references to public sources of information to permit others to repeat the work. Authors should cite publications that have been influential in determining the nature of the reported work. Information obtained privately, as in conversation, correspondence, or discussion with third parties should not be used or reported without explicit permission from the investigator with whom the information originated. When a paper has joint authorship, one author must accept responsibility for all correspondence with the full postal address, telephone and fax numbers, and e-mail address of the author who is to check proofs should be provided.

Papers should conform to the following general layout:

Title page

This should include title, authors, affiliations, email, telephone and fax numbers.

Abstract

This must be on a separate page. It should be about 100-200 words long and should summarize the content of the paper. The abstract should be followed by up to six keywords additional to those in the title identifying the subject matter for retrieval systems. Section headings First-, second-, third-, and fourth- order headings should be clearly distinguishable but not numbered.

References

In the text, references should be in the following forms:

(Singh, 1988); (Prasad & Yadav, 2006). When papers are by three authors, use all names on the first mention and thereafter abbreviate to the first name et al. For papers by four or more authors, use et al. throughout.

In Reference section, The list of references must include all publications cited in the text.
